Moreton Bay College

Moreton Bay College is a Pre-Prep to Year 12 Uniting Church School for girls, and consistently rates as one of Brisbane's top performing schools. With a rich heritage, exceptional teachers, state-of-the-art facilities, an integrated pastoral care programme and extensive co-curricular opportunities, Moreton Bay College offers an outstanding student experience.

Our History

Established in 1901, Moreton Bay College has witnessed many changes over the years, while maintaining the core values and traditions established by our Founders, the Greene sisters. What was once primarily a boarding school with an enrolment of 26 in the small seaside town of Wynnum, is today a thriving Pre-Prep to Year 12 day school on Wondall Road, Manly West, Brisbane.

Conversations with Moreton Bay "Old Girls" of all ages reveal what a special place this school was for them, and the College feels that it is important to acknowledge its rich past and maintain the standards established by the Greene sisters while also looking forward and embracing change.

Moreton Bay College takes great pride in its history. The College Archives, established in our Centenary Year of 2001, preserves, records and communicates the College's history. The resources it contains are accessed by a broad variety of members of the College and the wider community.

A major focus of celebration of the College's history is the annual Founders' Day Service. Attended by Years 4 to 12, along with special guests, the service allows the College community to reflect upon, give thanks for and celebrate the establishment of our wonderful school in 1901.

Living with a host/homestay family

Australia is a diverse country, and Brisbane is a multi-cultural city.

One-third of the people who live in Brisbane were not born in Australia. One of the reasons Australians are so welcoming of international visitors is because of our multiculturalism.

Host/homestay families represent the diversity of Brisbane's population.

There are many different types of families who host our visiting students.

When we are assessing the suitability of a homestay family, we consider the following:

- Are they a friendly, kind and welcoming family?
- Will they provide a caring home environment and provide food and adequate supervision for the student?
- Are there enough bedrooms in their home for the visiting student to have their own bedroom?
- Do they speak English as their main language?
- Are they able to provide suitable transport options for the student to and from the Colleges?
- Do they hold a valid Blue Card for Working with Children?

In Australia, it is illegal and unacceptable to discriminate or make judgement about people based on looks, race, religion, gender or cultural background.

Our Colleges are unable to fulfil requests for visiting students to be placed with families of a particular race or cultural background.

Allergies and Medical

All medical and allergy information received by the Colleges will be passed onto the homestay family upon placement. All medically-diagnosed allergies must be listed on your student profile form. On arrival, please make sure your homestay family are aware of any foods you do not eat for medical, cultural or religious reasons.

Being part of a Homestay family

Homestay families are kind and caring people who have volunteered to provide a home for a visiting overseas student.

It is an expectation that all homestay families will be treated with respect by students. Showing disrespect to your homestay family is unacceptable. We expect homestay families to treat students with equal respect. Some ways that you will show respect for your homestay family are:

Following the house rules

- Make a positive contribution to the family and their home. This could include things like offering to do some chores to contribute to the household, doing some laundry, and keeping your own belongings tidy.
- Interact with the family. It is important that you participate in family meals and outings. Spend time in the company of all family members.
- Make sure you ask permission in advance to attend any social outings with friends. Provide your homestay parents with information about where you would like to go, who you would like to go with, and what time you will be home.
- Try to eat the same food as the family.
- Being kind and considerate in how you speak to family members.

A vital aspect of homestay is for you to experience everyday life as a participating family member. It will take time to get to know each other and feel completely relaxed in the home. This is normal.

You can approach your homestay family if there are difficulties either in the home or at school. It is OK to ask for help or clarification if there is something you do not understand. Likewise, homestay families should feel equally comfortable addressing any issues with you.

For serious concerns or ongoing struggles, school staff will be able to assist in facilitating communication.

Homestay Parents

Homestay parents assume the role of your parents. Your homestay parents will assume all aspects of parental care and responsibility for you during your stay.

It is important that you comply with requests from your homestay parents. This could include things like asking permission to attend social outings and events. Your homestay parent may occasionally decline your requests. They may also insist that you see a doctor if you are unwell.

Your homestay parents will let you know what you should call them.

What if I don't like my homestay family?

Occasionally there is a simple mismatch of a student and homestay family. In this case mediation is the first response, which will be coordinated by the school. If an acceptable solution is not reached, a new placement may be found for the student if all parties are in agreement.

A change of homestay can be requested by either the student or homestay family. This will be negotiated on an individual basis, depending on circumstances. A fee may apply.

Meals and Food

Meal times are an important time of the day and all of your meals (three meals per day) and snacks will be provided by your homestay family. You may wish to go grocery shopping with your host parents and let them know the foods you like/dislike.

BREAKFAST

In most homes, breakfast is a rushed meal. It is common for family members to help themselves to breakfast foods such as toast, cereal, fruit, tea, coffee, juice or milk.

LUNCH

Your homestay family will provide you with a packed lunch. Homestay families will make, or provide the ingredients for you to make, a healthy packed lunch during the school week. This could include such things as sandwiches, wraps, rice, noodles and salads. Similar types of food will be available to you for lunch on the weekend. Students at MBC and MBBC eat a cold packed lunch at school. There are no facilities for heating up or cooking your food at school.

DINNER

Considered to be the main meal of the day in Australian homes, dinner is usually a healthy, hot meal. If the homestay family decide to eat a family meal at a restaurant or another location other than the home, the homestay family is responsible for any expenses incurred. You do not have to pay for your meal. If it is mutually decided that you do not participate in this outing with your homestay family, the homestay family must ensure you are provided with an appropriate meal option at home.

SNACKS

You will have access to snack foods such as fruit, biscuits, cake, yoghurt, etc for morning and afternoon tea.

Please note: all foods you cannot eat for medical or dietary reasons must be listed on your Student Profile Form.

Bedroom

A separate bedroom with your own bed (including appropriate linen/blankets) will be provided and will include a place for you to store your belongings. A desk for study may be located in the bedroom or in another area of the home. The bedroom is recognised as your own private area. You will be expected to keep your room clean and tidy.

Your homestay parent may request to inspect your room from time to time. In most homes, food is not allowed in bedrooms.

Bathroom

A shared or private bathroom will be available in your homestay home. Please talk to your host parents about the most appropriate time for showering.

General household items such as soap will be provided by your host family.

Girls should check with the host mother about how and where to dispose of sanitary items. Water is a precious commodity in Australia and sometimes there are water restrictions in place. Your shower needs to be short – around 4 minutes. You will need to hang your towel out to dry.

Laundry

Host parents are requested to provide a clean linen change each week and to launder your clothing once or twice a week. If you prefer to wash your own clothes, please check with your host family.

Your host family will show you where to place the clothing to be washed and will let you know which days they plan to wash.

You may be asked to assist with laundry as part of your contribution to the household. It is your responsibility to ensure your washing is placed in the appropriate place so laundry is done on time.

Kitchen

Australian kitchens are different to what you might be used to in your home country.

You may be asked to help wash up the dishes after dinner, or set the table. Australian families sometimes have a dishwasher or will use a tea towel to dry their dishes.

Swimming Pool

Some Australian homes will have a swimming pool. Please make sure you ask your home stay parents if you wish to use the pool. You must have adult supervision if you are swimming in your homestay family's pool or around are other water activities such as the beach.

Telephone

It is important for you to ask permission to use the home telephone if you need to. Phone calls made to your home country should be reverse charged. If local calls are excessive, it would be appropriate for you to offer to pay for these calls.

You may choose to carry a mobile phone at your own expense with an Australian SIM card that has enough credit to make phone calls to your homestay family if necessary.

Homestay parents will provide you with their mobile phone numbers and other contact details. You must provide your homestay family with your mobile phone number.

Mobile Phones

Please refer to the College policies on mobile phones, which can be found in the Parent Handbook.

Once you arrive on the College campus, mobile phones should be placed safely in your bags (Secondary students) or handed to a teacher for safe keeping during the school day (Primary Students). Mobile phones are not to be used for any social interaction while on campus.

Internet and Technology

The Colleges will provide free wi-fi access during the times you are on campus. Provision of the internet in the homestay home should be discussed with your homestay parents.

In Australia home internet plans vary greatly. Most home plans have data and download limits, and exceeding these limits can be very expensive. Additional internet usage (beyond schoolwork) will be negotiated between you and the homestay family. Clear guidelines, such as time limits and download limits, will be presented to you. If you ignore or exceed these limits, you will bear any additional costs incurred. The homestay family may restrict your internet usage.

Your homestay family may monitor your internet usage, including checking what you have been accessing and the time you are spending online. This is common practice for parents in Australia. If you are accessing the internet in your bedroom via computer or mobile device, you will be expected to leave the door open with the monitor/screen in full view. Homestay parents may restrict the time you spend online for recreational usage (such as using social media, watching movies, etc).

Your homestay family will show you where your devices are to be placed overnight.

This policy is for your health and safety. We want to make sure all students are getting adequate sleep so you are well prepared for learning the next day.

Please refer to the IT Policy and Responsible User Agreement for further information about the Colleges' expectations in relation to the Internet and Technology.

Daily Routines and House Rules

There will be some areas of the home you will need to share with others, such as the kitchen, other living spaces, television, swimming pool etc.

Your host family may let you know some areas or personal items which are not able to be shared. These might include musical instruments or personal computers. Your homestay family will clearly explain this to you. Your homestay family will also show you the areas of the home that are private spaces, such as other bedrooms, ensuite bathroom or home office. It is important for you to respect these boundaries.

Your host family will let you know their daily routine, including bed times, meal times, family activities and any other special house rules, such as security, lights etc.

School days are Monday to Friday. Family routines may be more relaxed on Saturdays and Sundays.

Your family will set a bed time for you, and you will be expected to comply.

Chores

It is not common in Australia for households to employ domestic help. You may be asked to assist with chores such as cleaning, shopping, food preparation, laundry etc which are mostly completed by family members.

Security

Houses in Australia have locks on external doors and windows. Some houses also have an alarm system.

Australian houses do not generally have locks on bedroom doors as it is considered a fire hazard and dangerous practice. Homestay houses will not have locks on bedroom doors because of this fire safety risk.

Animals and Pets

Pets, such as dogs and cats are common in Australian homes. These pets may come inside the house and are very much considered to be part of the family.

School Requirements

ATTENDANCE

As part of your visa, there are requirements in relation to attendance at school which you must comply with.

You must attend school every day unless you are unwell or an emergency situation occurs.

If you are unwell and are not able to attend school, your homestay parent will inform the school prior to the commencement of the school day. You are required to see a doctor if you are sick and obtain a medical certificate.

If you become unwell during the school day, please let a teacher know.

If necessary, you may attend medical or dental appointments during the school day. Your homestay family will transport you to and from such appointments.

While you are at school, you are required to attend all your timetabled lessons and classes.

For full attendance policy, please see page 22.

Homework

The homestay family will ensure you have adequate time and space to complete all homework. It is OK to ask your homestay family for assistance with homework.

Your belongings

Secondary Students will be issued with a locker in which to store their books, mobile phone and other belongings during the day. Primary Students will keep their belongings in their school bag, which will be stored on the bag racks outside the primary classroom.

It is an expectation that you do not carry your bag around the campus during school hours.

Uniform and personal presentation

Our Colleges have very high expectations in terms of our uniform standards and personal presentation. Please refer to the expectations outlined in our College Parent Handbook for more detail.

GUIDELINES:

- Please ensure your footwear has a covered toe.
- Tops must have sleeves. No midriff, singlet or strappy tops.

College Code of Conduct

Policy Aim: These Codes of Conduct set forth the standards of conduct expected of students and staff of Moreton Bay College.

Scope and Responsibilities: The Moreton Bay College Codes of Conduct provide guidelines, expectations and consistency for all members of the College community. They also act as an orientation guide for new staff, students and parents.

The aim of education is the intellectual, personal, social, and ethical development of the individual. The educational process is ideally conducted in an environment that encourages reasoned debate, intellectual honesty, openness to constructive change and respect for the rights of all individuals. Self-discipline and a respect for the rights of others in the College community are necessary for the fulfillment of such goals. These Codes of Conduct are designed to promote this environment at the College and in College-related activities.

Codes of conduct student

1. Each student is responsible for her own behaviour in any situation in which she finds herself.
2. It is particularly important that no student, whether through deliberate action, neglect or lack of concern, interferes with the rights of others.
3. Students are to follow all directions from, and respect the position of, staff at all times.
4. The College does not tolerate any form of discrimination. We believe all staff and students have the right to work in an environment free of discrimination and harassment. Bullying is a form of harassment and will not be tolerated.
5. Offensive behaviour will not be tolerated whether in school or class, on or off campus, on excursions or camps, or during any College activity.
6. Students will not undertake any of the following activities, including but not limited to:
 - a. smoking
 - b. drinking of alcoholic liquor
 - c. use, supply or possession of drugs (unless medically prescribed)
 - d. misuse of prescription drugs
 - e. gambling
 - f. stealing and other law-breaking offences
 - g. causing injury to another person
 - h. using objectionable or obscene or abusive language
 - i. engaging in any activity likely to compromise or endanger herself, other students, or likely to jeopardise the standing and reputation of the College.

The College advises parents, in the strongest possible terms, that attendance by students at functions where alcohol or other drugs are being consumed by students, or where students are conducting themselves in an inappropriate manner contradictory to the College Code of Conduct, is fraught with risk. Students finding themselves in such situations should make every reasonable attempt to leave, and parents should support them in their endeavours.

Codes of conduct staff

All staff must follow the Queensland College of Teacher's Code of Ethics. Coaching staff must refer to QGSSSA Code of Conduct for Coaches and Staff.

Behavioural Expectations

As members of the Moreton Bay College community, students have

- the right to be treated respectfully, courteously and fairly
- the right to learn and play in a quality, positive, clean and safe environment
- the right to open communication and a developmental relationship with peers and staff

Students are expected to:

1. Follow ALL directions from, and respect the position of, teachers in charge of the group.
2. If in a billeting position, respect the position of the host billeting family and not engage in conduct which would compromise or embarrass the host family.
3. Act responsibly at all times, whether with the entire group or independent of supervision.
4. Understand and respect cultural and social differences, and behave with sensitivity and due consideration for others.
5. Follow ALL regulations and codes specified by places of accommodation and the requests of billeting hosts.
6. At all times observe the College's team members code of behaviour.

Students will not undertake any of the following activities, including but not limited to:

1. Smoke.
2. Drink alcoholic beverages, whether in private or in public.

3. Purchase duty free alcohol and cigarettes.
4. Use or supply drugs (unless medically specified).
5. Steal or otherwise misappropriate any property which is not their own or commit any other law-breaking offences.
6. Accept any invitation from males or other groups.
7. Enter clubs, nightclubs or bars, at any time.
8. Leave their place of accommodation without permission from teachers in charge or billeting hosts.
9. Venture off on their own. Students must at all times be accompanied by at least two other students or preferably a group, and only then with permission from teachers or billeting hosts.
10. Question any decisions or directions given by teachers in charge or billeting hosts.
11. Use objectionable or obscene language.

Students must at all times understand that when on school excursions, whether domestic or overseas, they are ambassadors for Moreton Bay College and, when overseas, for Australia. The College considers it reasonable to expect a high standard of behaviour and self-discipline.

Serious breaches of this code of behavioural expectations will result in the student's parents being notified. The College reserves the right to send students home by the first available transport. Any additional expense incurred in this regard will be the responsibility of the student's parents.

Students must understand that the College takes these behavioural expectations seriously. Any breach of these may result in suspension or expulsion from the College.

QGSSSA Code of Behaviour (Secondary students, Parents, Staff)

The QGSSSA has been established to serve member schools by arranging sporting fixtures and to promote a healthy approach to sporting activities.

Changing attitudes to sport in the community, and the pressure and commercialisation associated with sport in many spheres, have led the Association to believe its aims and objectives need to be codified.

The Association believes that we should encourage good behaviour and sportsmanship on the sports field, and considers that the following directions should be observed.

In General

1. Conduct all competition in friendship and with fair play and uphold the spirit of the rules.
2. Be aware that competitive sport is for enjoyment, and that winning is only part of the process.
3. Observe the special position of a host school and a guest school.
4. Be aware of the fundamental philosophical differences between the games played and professional games shown on television. The professional is an entertainer and a wage earner whose play often reflects these facts.

Participants

1. Maintain a high standard of conduct at all times, both on and off the field. Each and every player should set an example of good sportsmanship.
2. Appreciate the good play of opponents and accept the mistakes made by fellow players.
3. Play the game hard but not unfairly.
4. Never show ill-temper or spite. Give assistance to opponents where appropriate.
5. Meet the coach and captain of opposing teams when possible.
6. Give congratulations, thanks and cheers as appropriate to captains and/or players of opposing teams.
7. Obey orders or instructions from the umpire, referee or designated official quickly and cheerfully and accept any decisions, however unfavourable, without question.
8. The use of drugs, including pain killers, to improve or maintain the performance of any individual player or group of players is contrary to the philosophy of this Code.
9. Contribute to the team effort as well as to one's personal performance.
10. Use barracking to encourage but not to hinder.

Parents and Spectators

1. Remember that children learn best by example. Always applaud good performances by the visiting team as well as your own. Never use profane language or harass coaches or officials.
2. Teach your child that honest effort is as important as victory, so the result of each game is accepted without undue disappointment.
3. Help your child work toward skill improvement and good sportsmanship. Never ridicule or yell at your child for making a mistake or losing a competition.
4. Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abuse from children's sporting activities.
5. Recognise the value and importance of coaches. Support them in their decisions and do not coach from the sideline unless the sport permits this.

Coaches/Staff

1. Be reasonable in your demands on the young player's time, energy and the enthusiasm. Remember that they have other interests.
2. Accept the decisions of referees and umpires; this does not preclude rational clarification of decisions at a subsequent time.
3. Teach your students that rules of the sport are mutual agreements which no one should evade or break.

4. Under no circumstances is there to be deliberate flouting of the General Competition Rules and By-Laws for various sports. Discourage time wasting and time-wasting actions, over-vigorous play and deliberate use of illegal tactics.
5. Develop team respect for the ability of opponents as well as for the judgement of officials and opposing coaches.
6. Remember that children need a coach they can respect. Be generous with your praise when it is deserved and set a good example.
7. Follow the advice of a physician when determining when an injured player is ready to play again.
8. Ensure that equipment and facilities meet safety standards.

Andrews Cup sporting code of conduct

1. Winning is a vital ingredient of any sporting tradition, but should not be placed more highly than the spirit and enjoyment of the game or the development of appropriate behaviour related to losing or winning.
2. Good performances from either/any team should be acknowledged. Encourage your children to congratulate both the opposition and their own players following a good performance.
3. The basis for all sport rests with encouragement of honest effort and the development of skills.
4. Children learn best from a good example being set.
5. Children should be taught and encouraged to play by the rules as laid down and abide by the referee's/umpire's decision.
6. Positive encouragement is valuable and appreciated – ridicule and harassment are not.
7. Over-zealous and loud support is often detrimental to the performance of children.
8. Outbursts questioning the decision of referees or umpires are unacceptable.
9. Games are played for the fun and benefit of children, not as a demonstration of their parents' previous sporting proficiency or inefficiencies.
10. The needs and goals of the children should be the prime objective. If a positive, encouraging comment cannot be made, it is better to say nothing.

Students must understand that the College takes these behavioural expectations seriously. Any breach of these may result in suspension or expulsion from the College.
